Rizing can help build a program that takes your organization from where you are today (current resources, past practices, culture) to where you hope to be in the future.

LIFT – Build

Our Lift Build package takes the DIY client one step further in their journey. Our Qualtrics experts will configure an engagement or lifecycle survey as well as the corresponding dashboard, while enabling them to take on the next steps in their Qualtrics journey.

ELEVATE

Our Elevate package is designed for the clients who understand what they want their listening strategy to be and are looking for a jump start on their journey. Our Qualtrics experts guide the client's configuration of an engagement and a lifecycle survey and drive a deeper understanding of listening strategy through our Design and Results & Insights workshops.

LIFT – Guidance Only

Our Lift Guidance package enables clients on their DIY journey. The client configures an engagement or lifecycle survey and our Qualtrics experts provide guidance and best practices for solution and dashboard design.

SOAR

Our Soar package is designed for the clients who want to put into place a wholistic listening strategy for their organization. Through onsite and virtual activities, we educate you with a hands on, guided approach. Our workshops (Kickoff & Design, Results & Insights, and Action Planning) help to target specific data to improve organizational engagement through the life cycle of the program.
